BUSHIDO CAPITAL US EQUITY ETF (SMRI) OVERVIEW

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Bushido Capital US Equity ETF (“Bushido”, “SMRI”, the “Fund”) utilizes a systematic, fundamental value approach to individual stock selection that incorporates both quantitative and qualitative analysis.

The Fund seeks to identify and invest in companies with the following characteristics:

- High free cash flow generation relative to the capital employed
- Strong returns on capital over full economic cycles
- Management teams with track records of shareholder friendly capital allocation decisions

INVESTMENT APPROACH

- Quantitative analysis focused on DCF modeling, profitability of business, and capital allocation track record
- Qualitative analysis centered on company transcripts, presentations, earnings calls and SEC filings
- Strict discipline around valuation and quality of company fundamentals for portfolio inclusion
- Focus on reported financial fundamentals of the business, not a story of why company should do well

PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

- Intentional high active share with portfolio positions that may vary significantly from benchmark
- Equal weighted portfolio of 30-50 positions to focus on highest conviction ideas
- Lead Portfolio Manager has significant personal investment in the Fund

ABOUT THE ADVISOR

SMRI is based on the same investment strategy that has been implemented in a Separately Managed Account since 2020 by Sepio Capital, LP, the Fund subadvisor.

Portfolio Managers (PM):

John Beatson

John Beatson serves as the lead portfolio manager of the Fund, is a Managing Partner of the Advisor, and Portfolio Manager of Bushido Capital Fund LLC, a private partnership, since 2008. Before joining Sepio Capital, John worked at Marshfield Associates, a private investment firm based in Washington D.C., as a partner and member of the investment committee from 2005-2018. Prior to that, he was an associate at Goldman Sachs in the Global Investment Research division. John graduated from Brown University with a B.A. in Economics.

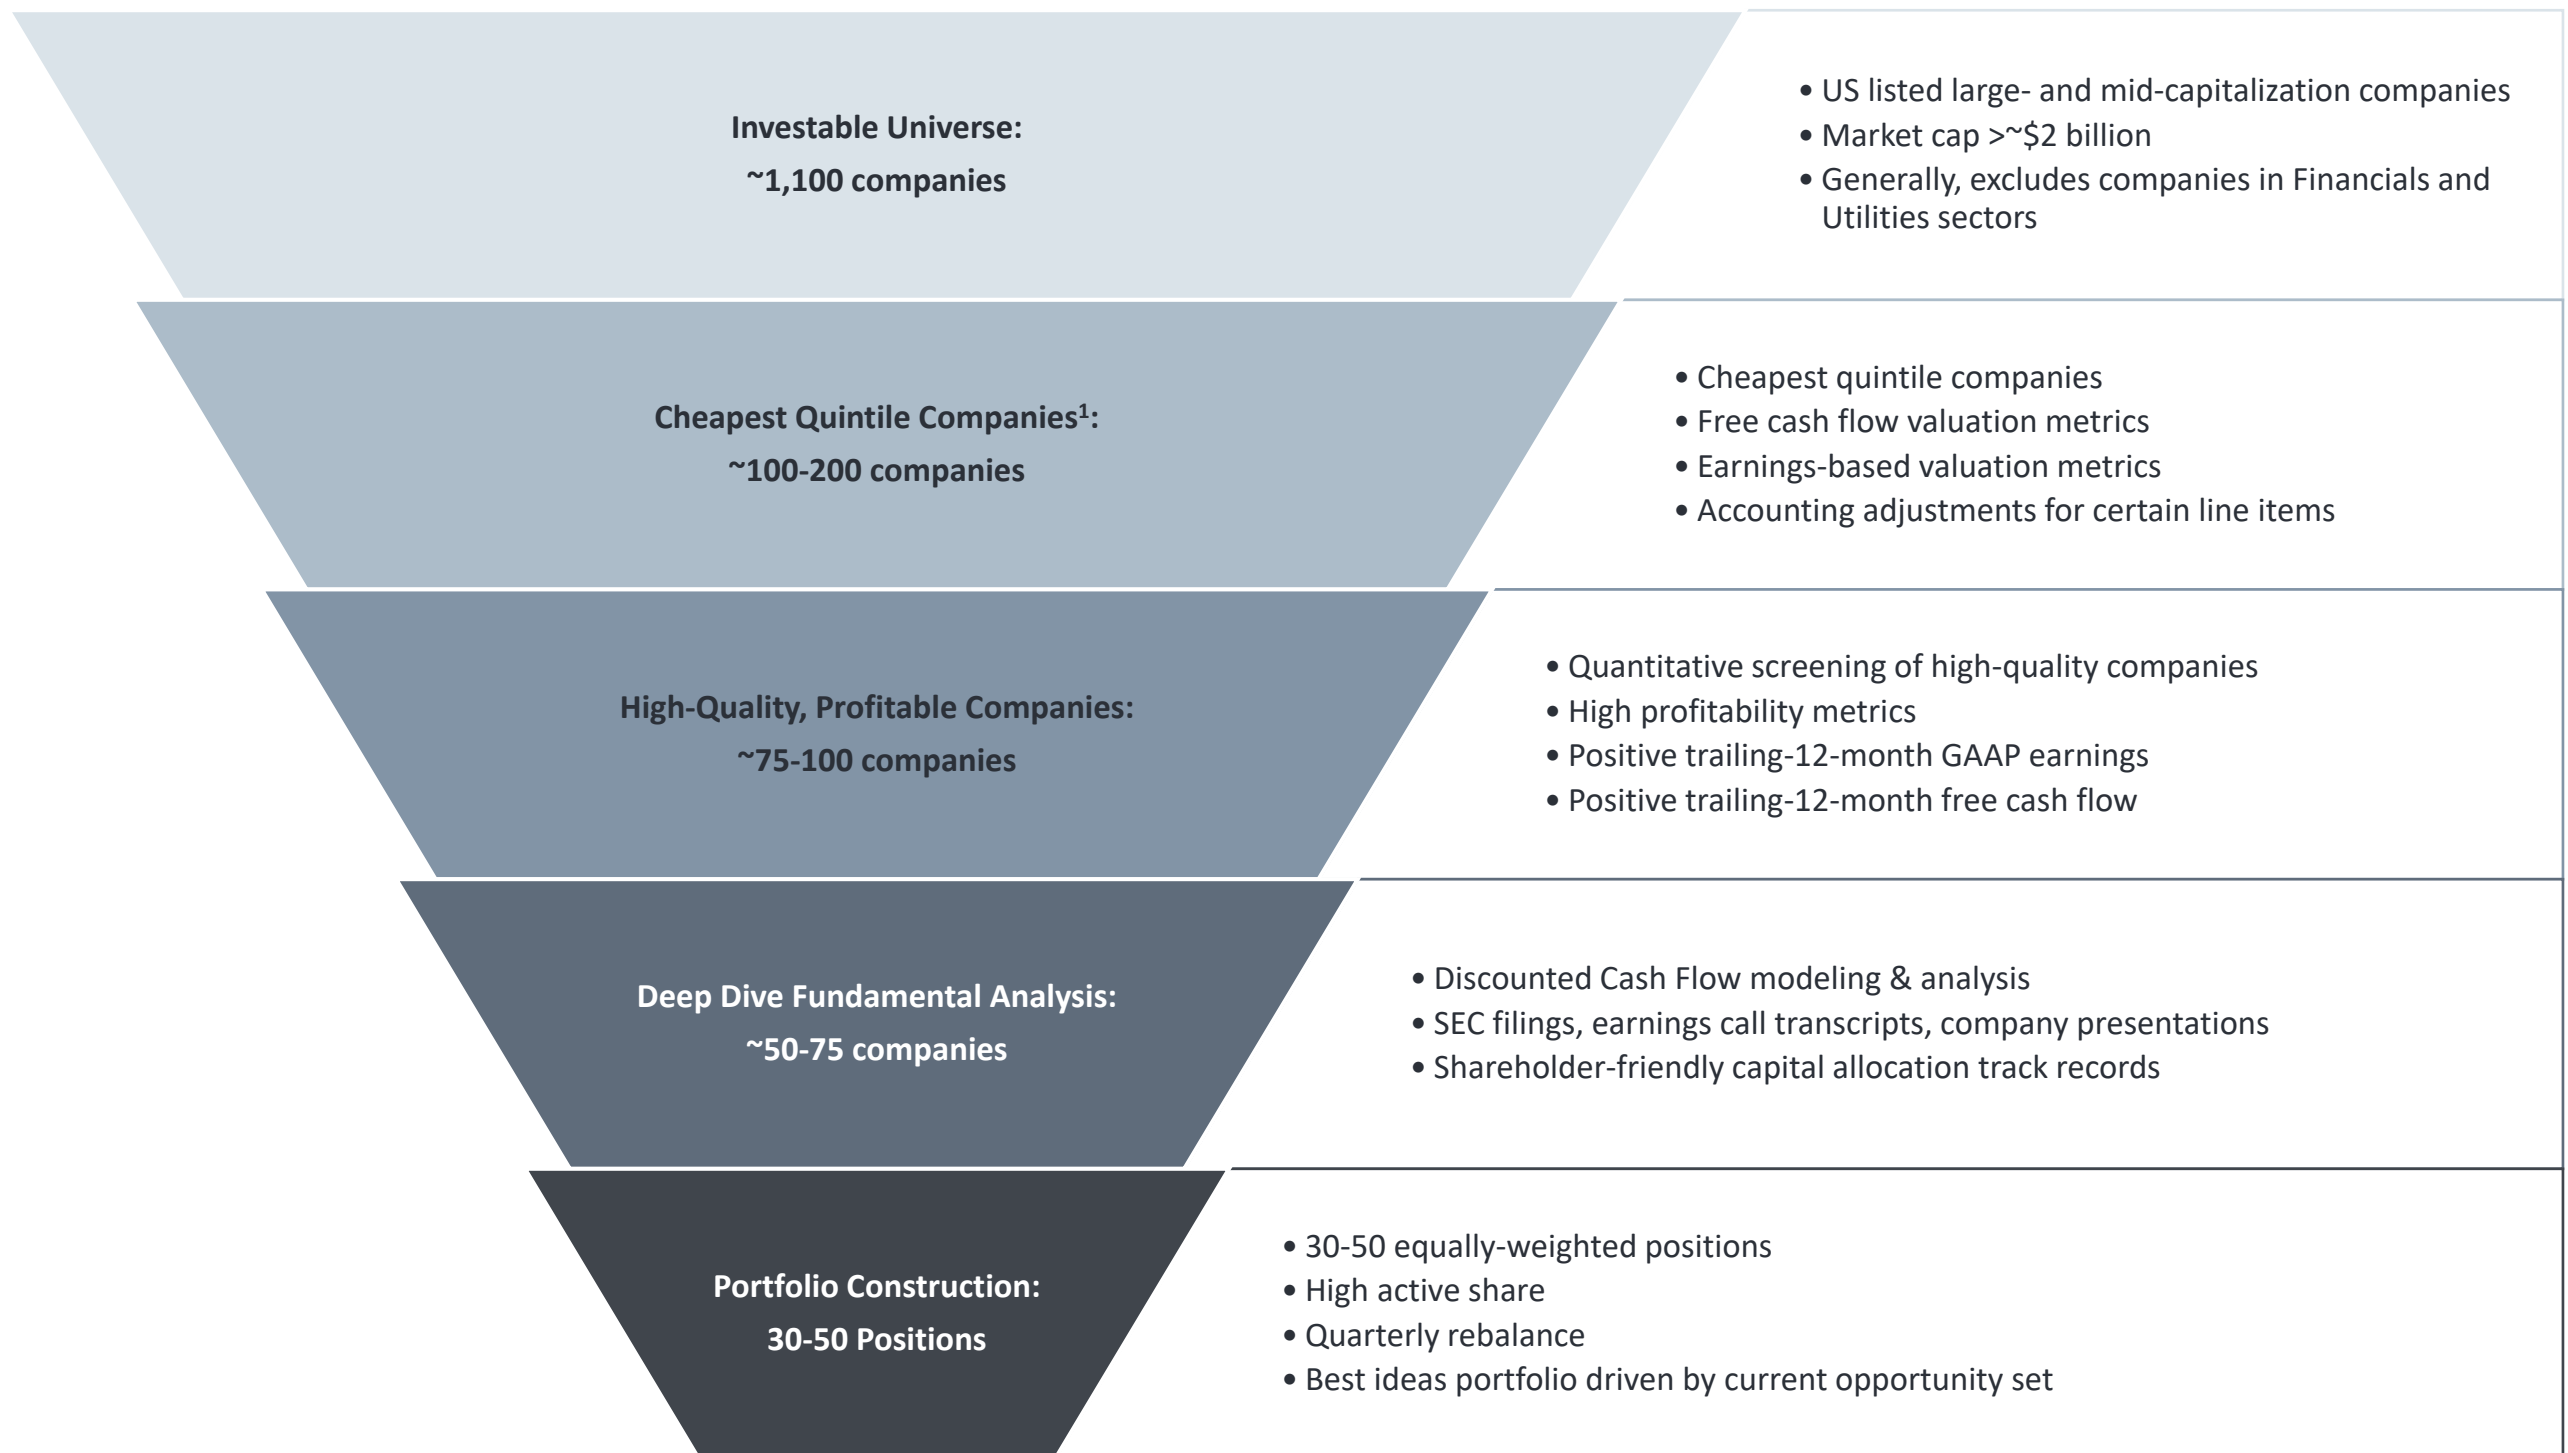

Josh Carter, CFA, CAIA

Josh co-founded Sepio Capital after working as a managing director at Bank of America Merrill Lynch and as a senior equity research analyst and proprietary trader at Goldman Sachs. While at Goldman, Josh covered the exchanges, leading the firm's research and analysis on the sector. As a proprietary trader, he covered financials and ran an equity long/short portfolio. Josh earned his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and his AB cum laude in Social Studies from Harvard University.

Investment Process

- SMRI seeks to buy high-quality companies that are trading for attractive valuations in the PM's opinion.

¹Bushido Capital defines "Cheap" as low Price/Sales, Price/Earnings, and EV/EBITDA ratios relative to the rest of the market.

Large-Capitalization Companies Risk. Large-capitalization companies may trail the returns of the overall stock market. Large-capitalization stocks tend to go through cycles of doing better - or worse - than the stock market in general.

Mid-Capitalization Companies Risk. Investing in securities of mid-capitalization companies involves greater risk than customarily is associated with investing in larger, more established companies.

New Fund Risk. The Fund is new with no operating history. As a result, prospective investors have no track record or history on which to base their investment decision.

Value-Style Investing Risk. The Sub-Adviser may be wrong in its assessment of a company's value, and the stocks the Fund owns may not reach what the Sub-Adviser believes are their true value.

Management Risk. The Fund is actively-managed and may not meet its investment objective based on the Adviser's or Sub-Adviser's success or failure to implement investment strategies for the Fund. The success of the Fund's investment program depends largely on the investment techniques and risk analyses applied by the Sub-Adviser, including the use of quantitative models or methods. It is possible the investment techniques and risk analyses employed on behalf of the Fund will not produce the desired results. In addition, the Adviser's and Sub-Adviser's evaluations and assumptions regarding investments may not successfully achieve the Fund's investment objective given actual market trends. Absent unusual circumstances (e.g., the Adviser determines a different security has higher liquidity but offers a similar investment profile as a recommended security), the Adviser will generally follow Sub-Adviser's investment recommendations to buy, hold, and sell securities and financial instruments.

Risk of Investing in Other ETFs. The fund may invest in other ETFs, the Fund's investment performance is impacted by the investment performance of the selected underlying ETFs. An investment in the Fund is subject to the risks associated with the ETFs that then-currently comprise the Fund's portfolio.

Forward P/E. Forward 12 Months Price to Earnings (P/E) Ratio. The weighted harmonic average of current share price divided by the forecasted 12 months earnings per share for each security in the Fund. Positive outliers are included, and negative outliers are excluded in the calculation.

EV/EBITDA. Periodic Enterprise Value to Trailing 12 Months Earnings Before Interests, Tax, Depreciation and Amortization (EBITDA) Ratio. The weighted harmonic average of periodic enterprise value divided by the trailing 12 months EBITDA per share for each security in the Fund. Positive outliers are included, and negative outliers are excluded in the calculation.

Price/Cash Flow. Price to Trailing 12 Months Cash Flow Ratio. The weighted harmonic average of current share price divided by the trailing 12 months cash flow per share for each security in the Fund. Positive outliers are included, and negative outliers are excluded in the calculation.

Price/Sales. Price to Trailing 12 Months Sales Ratio. The weighted harmonic average of current share price divided by the trailing 12 months revenue per share for each security in the Fund. Positive outliers are included, and negative outliers are excluded in the calculation.

NAV. NAV is the sum of all assets less any liabilities, divided by the number of shares outstanding.

Free cash flow. A company's cash flow from operations minus capital expenditures.

DCF. Discounted cash flow. Discounting a company's future cash flow using a discount rate/cost of capital to calculate the company's net present value.

Active Share. Active share is the percentage of a portfolio's stock holdings that differ from its benchmark index. It is based on the weightings of securities in a portfolio compared with those of its benchmark and can be used as a measure of the degree of a portfolio's active management.

S&P 500 Value Index. The S&P 500 Value Index is a market capitalization weighted index, and measures value stocks using three factors: the ratios of book value, earnings, and sales to price. S&P Style Indices divide the complete market capitalization of each parent index into growth and value segments. Constituents are drawn from the S&P 500®.

Intellectual Property Information. The S&P 500® Index is a product of S&P Dow Jones Indices LLC or its affiliates (“S&P DJI”). The Fund is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by S&P DJI, their respective affiliates, and none of such parties make any representation regarding the advisability of investing in such Fund nor do they have any liability for any errors, omissions, or interruptions of the index.
